Subject: Youth Commission appointments

Purpose

To appoint individuals to serve on the Youth Commission.

Background

The Council appoints individuals to serve on the Youth Commission. Los Altos residents who are students between grades seven through twelve are eligible to serve on the Youth Commission. Commissioners are appointed to serve to one- or two-year terms and are eligible to be reappointed until they graduate from high school.

Discussion/Analysis

This June, terms for four Youth Commissioners will expire. One of these Commissioners will graduate from high school and is not eligible to be reappointed.

On May 20, 22 and 29, 2019, the Council Youth Commission Interview Committee interviewed eligible applicants and recommends Vivek Bharati, Jessica Young, Tom Harpaz and Devon Montgomery-Eder be appointed to two-year terms on the Youth Commission.

Options

- 1) Accept the recommendation of the Youth Commission Interview Committee and reappoint and appoint the recommended individuals to the Youth Commission

Advantages: Fills four vacancies on the Youth Commission

Disadvantages: None identified

- 2) Direct the Youth Commission Interview Committee to present an alternate recommendation to the Council

Advantages: None identified

Disadvantages: Delays the seating of four Youth Commissioners

Recommendation

The Youth Commission Interview Committee recommends Option 1.
