

LOS ALTOS BMR RENTAL PROGRAM

The City of Los Altos’ Below Market Rate (BMR) Housing Rental Program helps provide rental apartments for low and moderate-income households. BMR renters must meet special income and other eligibility requirements.

The individual on-site property managers manage waitlists and provide application forms for available BMR rental units. Housing Group, the City’s BMR Housing Program Administrator, confirms household income and eligibility requirements before leases are signed.

Please contact property managers about BMR rental availability and to be placed on the individual property’s wait list.
