Fall Activity Guide

The Fall Activity Guide has been released! There are a variety of classes and programs for all ages to enjoy. Registration is now open for all and can be done online via the City website or in-person at the Hillview Community Center Front Office.

Halloween Window Painting

This long-time tradition and popular event is back this Fall Season! The event is open to youth who attend 4th grade through High School in the Los Altos area. More information can be found in the Fall Activity Guide or online on the City website.
