Clearance Letter Application

Date:

A Clearance Letter is provided for the following situations:

If you require a visa to travel outside the US for employment, school, church or adoption purposes or if you have a letter from US CIS specifying your fingerprints were rejected and that you need a police clearance letter.

Clearance letters are processed within 3-5 days, sealed and handed to you. If your letter is required to be notarized the arrangements are your responsibility. When a local search determines a criminal record exists, the letter is processed and mailed directly to the consulate, embassy or agency requiring this information.

Note: The $47.75 Clearance Letter Application fee is due upon submission and is non-refundable.
