BACKGROUND

Beginning in January 2017, the City and the Public Arts Commission (PAC) have been working with Designing Local to develop a Public Arts Master Plan.

DISCUSSION

Designing Local is currently making changes to a draft of the Master Plan based on feedback received from the PAC and City staff. A revised draft will be provided to the PAC subcommittee tasked with working on this project and will come to the full PAC in September.

At the August 24, 2017 meeting, the PAC will review design and layout options with staff from Designing Local.
