The motion was seconded by COLE and passed unanimously.

BUSINESS

2. Bill of Rights for Children and Youth

Council Member Fishpaw presented the Bill of Rights for Children, which is designed for local governments to use in making decisions for the community. Youth Commission supports the Bill of Rights and will discuss ways of integrating them in the community

3. LAYC Dances

March Dance was excellent turnout. Noticed that LAYC Members were not RSVPd. Chair
Casas mentioned that Commissioners need to be more present at LAYC Dances going forward.

4. Youth Commission Recruitment

Applications are available and due March 25. Advertisement is also available online.

5. Teen Spring Program

Waiting on the prizes that were to be offered so the flier could be completed. Discussion of the event being pushed back but concern about the event not being executed. Commissioners were to check the dates April 16 and 23 to change the event. All subcommittees are to be completed

6. Teen Friendly Business

Logo to be completed by March 9, 2011.

7. Los Altos Hills Youth Commission Event
