City Council Liaison Weinberg acknowledged the Youth Commissioners' comments and ideas regarding the Safe Routes to School presentation, and encouraged the Commissioners to continue to provide ideas to the presenters in the future.

COMMISSIONERS' REPORTS AND COMMENTS

4. Environmental Subcommittee. Commissioner Young informed the Commission the art contest is wrapping up that judging would take place in 2 weeks. The Commissioner noted the quality of the artwork submitted and that everyone is excited to finalize winners.
5. Social Justice Subcommittee: Commissioner Bharati informed the Commissioners the drafted email had been sent to potential panelists. Have received positive and negative replies. Will continue efforts to reach others.
6. Publicity Subcommittee: Vice Chair Hong informed the Commissioners of the targeted June completion date for the Resource Guide currently in production. The goal is to have it available for student use over the summer. Staff Liaison Wells informed the Commissioners that City Public Information Officer Sonia Lee seeks to collaborate with the Publicity Subcommittee on publicizing the need for students over 16 to get vaccinated and would like to meet this week or next.
7. Special Events Subcommittee: Commissioner Morokutti provided an update on the "Teen Friendly Business" award progress, noting information was still being obtained from businesses to determine their eligibility. Staff Liaison Wells requested Subcommittee forward business email list to him so the City could provide assistance in contacting businesses.
8. Complete Streets Subcommittee: Commissioner Venkatraman informed Commissioners that most recent meeting was focused on looking at planning drawings showing routes to schools and providing feedback regarding safer options.
9. May 4 Joint City Council & Commissions Meeting: Vice Chair Hong provided full preview of presentation to be made at Council Meeting tomorrow. Staff Liaison Wells advised Commissioners he would send information on how to join the meeting tomorrow.
